London, March 8.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland, and one from France.

Malta, January 12.

THE Great Master held an Extraordinary Council of War the 10th Instant, which continued sitting very late at Night, and new Orders were sent the next Day to the Governour of the Isle of Gozo; the Workmen also, that are employed about the new Fortifications of St. Michael's Island, were redoubled, that they may be the sooner perfected. The young Chevaliers of this Order, that have attained to the Age of 19 Years, who are all summoned, are impatiently expected here to be ready to defend the Island in case of an Attack; 'tis believed, that with the Succours they will bring, and those which are to come from Italy and Sicily, we shall have 10000 Men regular Troops, besides 4000 Militia. There is no Probability of our Ships or Gallies putting to Sea this Year.

Vienna, Feb. 27. The Republick of Venice has acquainted the Emperour, that she designs to take that of Ragusa under her Protection, and has already sent thither some Ships for her Defence, in case of an Attack from the Turks.

Paris, March 10. It is reported, that the Bishop of Frejus, lately the King's Preceptor, will in a little Time be made a Cardinal, and that three or four new Dukes will be created. It is said, the present Dowager Princess of Condé has entered Protests with several Notaries, against whatever Dispositions may have been made prejudicial to her Interest by the Will of her Mother the late Princess. It is assured, that the Princess of Conti will shortly quit the Convent of Port-Royal to go to Court, in order to take upon her the Office of Governess to the Infanta Queen. The Cardinal de Rohan is preparing to go to his Diocese of Strasbourg. The Heart of the late Princess de Condé was carried the 5th Instant to the Royal Abbey of Maubisson. Advices from Malta say, that the Grand Master issued a Decree the 11th of January last, requiring all the Knights of that Order who are 10 Years of Age complete, and have not yet been in any warlike Expedition, to repair to Malta without fail in the Month of May next. The Marquess de Rangoni, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Modena, had a private Audience of the King the 9th Instant at Versailles, to compliment his Majesty on the Death of the late Dutchess of Orleans. He had Audience afterwards of the Duke of Orleans on the same Subject.

Paris, March 13. The Bishop of Frejus has declined keeping the List of the vacant Church Benefices which the King had offered him, and 'tis said his Majesty has named him to be Cardinal at the first Promotion at the Request of crowned Heads: The List of vacant Benefices is committed to the Bishop of Nantes. The Princess de Robes has the Privilege of the Tabouret in the King's Apartments, and was presented to his Majesty by the Ladies de Chaulnes, and d'Elspéron: The Privilege of entering into the King's Bed-Chamber is regulated after three different Manners: The 1st is for the Duke of Orleans, the Princess of the Blood, the Cardinal Prime Minister, the Physicians, and the two chief Surgeons, and this is called the familiar Entrance; the 2d is for the Dukes de Lauzun, and de Charost, for the Marechals de Villars, de Berwick, and is called the grand Entrance; the 3d is for the Dukes de Villeroy, d'Antin, and de Retz; the Marquesses d'Ancenis, de Lincourt, de Sommersy, d'O; the Count de Belle-Isle, and is called the first Entrance. The Duke de Chartres presented some Days ago a Petition to the King in behalf of the Duke du Maine, which was objected to by the Duke of Bourbon, but the Duke de Chartres answering to the Objection, his Majesty received the Petition, and 'tis believed it will be had under Consideration in the next Council.
